

Modern Slavery Act 2015 Statement

Introduction

This statement is made on behalf of TAG Farnborough Airport Ltd, pursuant to section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes our slavery and human trafficking statement.

Our Business

TAG Farnborough Airport is the UK's only dedicated private business aviation facility, based in Hampshire. From the multi-award winning hangars and terminal building, TAG Farnborough Airport provides premium services including aircraft handling, hangarage, flight briefing and world class passenger facilities.

Our commitment

We endeavour to ensure that there is no modern slavery in our supply chain or any part of our business, and to being a responsible entity which acts ethically and with integrity across all aspects of our operations.

We pride ourselves on operating safely, responsibly and ethically and condemn all forms of corruption. We adopt the highest professional standards and comply with all laws and regulatory standards applicable to our operation, which we are committed to continuously review and improve. Local community engagement is an important aspect of our business.

Our Supply Chain

We procure infrastructure and the supply of services, equipment and materials so as to enable the safe and effective delivery of airport services to our customers. All our suppliers, contractors, advisers and consultants are expected to implement a zero tolerance approach to modern slavery and comply with all local and national laws and regulations.

We are ensuring that our procurement process includes details of every supplier's compliance assessed through our TFA Procurement Questionnaire.

We also have a Whistleblowing Policy and Anti Bribery Policy which apply to all staff.

By the end of the year we will have implemented staff training and documented our anti slavery policy.

Brandon O'Reilly
Chief Executive Officer

Dated : 30th June 2017